

Call for Entries/Open Call

Seton Hall University's Walsh Library Gallery is currently soliciting submissions for a group thematic exhibition, in 'tər-āk'tiv, to be shown November 8th, through December 15th, 2006. Open to all artists working in any media, this exhibition will include interactive art that requires the participation of the viewer in order for the full expression of the art to be realized. All variations of interactivity will be reviewed and considered.

Eligibility

in 'tər-āk'tiv is open to all artists, working in any media. All forms of art are eligible. There is a limit of 5 entries per artist. Entrants must be 18 years of age or older to apply. All work must be ready for installation or hanging. Work must be available for the entire length of the exhibition. Sculptors may be required to supply pedestals.

Deadline

The Final postmark deadline is Friday, September 8th, 2006. All entries must be postmarked by this date, no exceptions.

Fees

There is a $10 entry fee regardless of the number of entries submitted (1 - 5). Details of artwork do not count additional (please limit details to 1 or 2 per submission). Please make check or payable to Walsh Library Gallery.

Image Presentation

Artwork may be submitted by 35mm slides or JPEG images on CD formatted for PC. Video artists should limit their submissions to a cued five-minute presentation on DVD or CD labeled with artist name and title of work. Label slides with artist, title, media, dimensions and directional arrow to indicate top of slide. For JPEG images, please include a single reference sheet with thumbnail prints representing the images on the disc. Next to each thumbnail, write the title, media, dimensions and date of the work.

Notification

Artists will be notified of acceptance or non-acceptance no later than September 28th, 2006. Notification will be made by mail with the return of materials, using SASE for non-selected artists. Selected artists will be notified via mail.

Receiving and Removal of Work

All work is to be received Wednesday November 1st through Friday November 3rd. Work may be delivered by hand or by private, pre-paid shipment. Shipped work must be sent pre-paid. Artist pays for return shipment. Return packaging is required. If work is not removed within one week of deinstallation (week of December 18th, 2006) artist may be charged an administrative fee of $50 for moving and storage. After 30 days, the art, including all rights, title and interest of the artist in and to the work will become the property of The Walsh Library Gallery. No substitutes of accepted artwork shall be permitted.

Liability and Insurance

Upon receipt of work in the Walsh Library Gallery, insurance will be enacted by the University liability policy. Loss or damage during shipment will not be covered by the gallery. The amount payable by insurance secured in accordance with this loan agreement is the sole recovery available to the lender from the Gallery in the event of loss or damage other than gradual deterioration in which neither party is responsible. The sales price shall serve as insurance valuation for each work accepted into the exhibition.

Return of Materials

A self-addressed, stamped envelope (SASE) must be included with sufficient postage for the return of your submission materials. Selected artists will receive return materials after the end of the exhibition. Non-selected artists will receive materials after selection period ends.

Sales

A donation of 20% to The Walsh Library Gallery is requested. Please price your art accordingly. All entries shall be listed for sale or marked "Not for Sale".
