

Seton Hall University History and Heritage Speaker Series

If you like local history, you'll love this Debut Series.

Thursday, Sept. 22, 5 p.m.

"The Philosophy of Laughter"

Fred McCarthy, creator of the famous "Brother Juniper" comic strip, will talk about the cartoon and show artwork related to Seton Hall and its 150th Anniversary.

Beck Rooms A-C, Walsh Library.

Wednesday, Nov. 16, 5 p.m.

"A Time for Miracles"

The film "A Time for Miracles" on the life of Elizabeth Ann Seton, America's first saint, will be shown, followed by a talk by Brigitte Koenig, assistant professor of history, and a panel discussion.

Beck Rooms A-C, Walsh Library.

Wednesday, Dec. 7, 5 p.m.

"History of South Orange & Seton Hall – A Partnership"

Naoma Welk, an author and historian on South Orange, will discuss parallels between the development of South Orange and Seton Hall from 1860 to the present.

Beck Rooms A-C, Walsh Library.

For more information,
contact Alan Delozier, Chair of the History & Heritage Committee,
Seton Hall University,
at (973) 275-2378
or e-mail delozial@shu.edu

SETON HALL
UNIVERSITY 150
years