DIGITAL PRIMARY RESOURCES

Over 30 databases contain digital primary resources. Access these databases at: http://library.shu.edu/az.php?q=history or http://library.shu.edu/history

We also have a great collection of books, ebooks, primary resources on the shelves at Walsh Library and an extensive collection of Primary Resources in the University Archives available to you by appointment.

Questions? Contact: Lisa.Deluca@shu.edu University Libraries
Marta.Deyrup@shu.edu University Libraries
Alan.Deloizer@shu.edu University Archivist

See complete list of back of this page
DIGITAL PRIMARY RESOURCES

- Accessible Archives
- African American Studies Center
- American Periodical Series (ProQuest)
- AP Archive
- Black Abolitionist Papers
- Black Studies Center
- Catalog of U.S Government Publications
- Catholic Reformation
- Congressional Publications
- Corpus Augustinianum Gissense
- CQ Congress Collection
- Digital Library of Classic Protestant Texts
- Digital Library of the Catholic Reformation
- Digital National Security Archive
- Early English Books Online
- Eighteenth Century Collections Online
- Electronic Enlightenment
- Ethnic NewsWatch
- First World War: Personal Experiences
- GenderWatch
- Gerritsen Collection - Women's History Online
- HeinOnline
- Jewish Life in America
- Legislative Insight
- LLMC Digital
- Medieval and Early Modern Sources Online
- Shakespeare Collection
- Women and Social Movements in the US